

Don One Biography 2018

Super crooner, Don One is a drag king extraordinaire. Guaranteed to keep you entertained with an uplifting choice of songs and plenty of banter thrown in.

Don One sings, hosts, chats and even raps! After completing a successful 10-day consecutive run of shows at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival 2017 with the 'One Stop Cabaret Shop', alongside co-host and co-producer Claire Benjamin; Don One is now on a mission to spread a special kind of brummie love - all over the land.

A long list of performances include the Erdinger Oktoberfest, Latitude Festival and a starring role in 'Brexit: The Musical' at the Hackney Empire as part of Jonny Woo's Un-Royal Variety show (2016).

Don One is also a regular host and performer at the Glory's 'Live Cabaret shows' with Jonny Woo and Mzz. Kimberly; co-hosted the Glory's 'Man-up' competition and is also a regular performer at Wotever World events, Kings of Colour, BoiBox and Butch, Please! And is also one of "the funniest judges" on the Man Up! 2018 competition.

Don One will take you through a song book of anthems that you can't help but sing along to. Topped off with some funny one liners for plenty of laughs and a show stopping performance that you definitely won't forget!

As a versatile performer, Don One was also cast by Alan Carr's production company Travesty Media for a short film to launch the LGBTQ+ Awards 2017. In addition to been cast for Smirnoff's 'Labels are for bottles' advertising campaign (end of 2017).

"Don One not only has one of the most powerful singing voices, but also one of the best speaking voice on the queer scene right now!" Ingo, Wotever World.
